South Carolina State Report Card

State and federal laws require public schools to release report cards to the public each year. This year, the report card has been updated to reflect changes in reporting directed by the SC Education Oversight Committee. Schools will not be rated for state accountability purposes until Fall 2017 when the state will transition to a single accountability system. The following reports student performance in school year 2014-15.

J-E-T Middle School is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the South Carolina Graduate by providing a safe, student centered community. We provide such an environment through the implementation of our school mission: to be a student centered community that prepares learners for the challenges of the future. The administration, faculty and staff of J-E-T Middle school strive every day to carry out this mission.

J-E-T Middle School offers a plethora of opportunities for students to excel academically, athletically, and emotionally through an emphasis on educating the whole child. In terms of academics, J-E-T Middle School has made significant strides, especially in the last several years. The administrators and teachers have worked to raise the rigor and relevancy of classroom instruction. This has resulted in the school winning the Palmetto Silver Award for the past three consecutive years, earning a value added 5 rating as a TAP school in 2012, earning an absolute rating of Average and an improvement rating of Good on the 2012 and 2013 school report cards. Teachers voted overwhelmingly to reinstate TAP at J-E-T-Middle School in the spring of 2014. The addition of two master teachers and five mentor teachers will have an immediate impact on student learning outcomes.

The Mock trial team advanced to the state competition for the fourth consecutive year. Students from J-E-T Middle School have won the statewide Lieutenant Governor's Essay award for two consecutive years. JET students once again won the district Americanism Award from the American Legion Auxiliary. Academic clubs have been successful as well here at J-E-T. The Mathcounts team competed in the chapter competition this year. 8th grade male students were active with the J-E-T middle school boys club visiting homes for the elderly and collecting blankets for them as well. J-E-T Middle School students have excelled in basketball, football and volleyball. J-E-T teams have won many regional championships since the school's inception in 1993.

Partnerships with higher education institutions such as Clemson University's dropout prevention program and U.S.C. Aiken's Ruth Patrick Science Center were developed by the leadership of J-E-T in order to assist in the school's academic progress. Students take several field trips throughout the course of the year to the Ruth Patrick Science Center and to the Audubon Center. Administrators, faculty and parents will continue to make strides
